FRITCH ASS outlined three methods of supplying water lines to the needed here methods of supplying water lines to the needed here methods of supplying water lines to the needed here method would be to certain table. One method would be to connected min water lines from the ment along Wolf Rd. These would then be connected min the Lowden Ln. system, the construction company to connect a four-inch pipe to the existing a vineth main, water pressure for the school control of the casising a vineth main, water pressure for the school.

and would result in reduced water pressure for the school, Friich said.
Another solution, Friich told the beard, would be to connect the waterlines from the Yates Ave. System This plan would require easement grants from two homeowners to eross their property to give the school district lines access to the street. Friich said the grant the casements at this time.

schoenness no comments also voted to delete from the construction project storm water retention basin originally planned for the high school

THE SCHOOL, the sixth in the district, is now under con-struction at 2100 E. Willow Rd. in Arlington Heights and is expected to open in 1968.

At the last Board of Educa-tion meeting the members ap-proved the expenditure of $20,000 to install the storm sewers and enclosed pipe to the corner of Elm and Kenilworth in Prospect

The board of Education rescinded its earlier action to altocate $2.0.00 for the partial installation of the work. The newly approved action includes the total cost of the entire project. The elimination of the resention bases at the high achood site will result in a $9.800 awings on the project and the work done by the township crews will jield another awings.

There will be one less day of practice for the free-thirds of practice for the free-thirds between haives of the Visitors. However, the visitors of the visito is sure to to take hold.

The Cota. s., whose president if Gil Krohn, is really digging in and making this town a potential beauty spot in Illinois. The railroad side of Northwest Highway is starting to look like something ince even in this season of faded blooms and winterized trees.

The Council has spent $1,500 elearing and planting and the spent of their money to far has opine from merchans and businessmen who must have money trees growing in their backrooms otherwise, they could not be so generous to every movement.

It's Time For Pantry Re-Stocking!

water the the

With your big Thanksgiving dinner over, you'll have a week or two of relative "quiet" before the hustle of Christmas shopping and entertaining begins. So perhaps now would be a good time to check your cupboards and make a list of the things you'll be needing in the weeks ahead. Jewel has done some plentiful re-stocking of its own in order to be prepared to help you fill your pantry. Right now, you'll find Jewel's selves brimming with baking supplies, canned goods, everyday meal staples . . . even an abundance of holiday treats if you're ready to make your selection. Some advance planning and food shopping now could make the coming hestic holiday weeks just a little easier on you. How about it? Ian't it just about time for pantry vs-stocking at Jewel?
